

Process Description:

“Detection” takes in the image sequence(s) of interest, identifies the objects in each image, and returns information such as object positions and intensities.

Parameter Descriptions:

The “Setting” button allows you to choose the detection method and consequently define its parameters.

The “Result” button allows you to visualize the results. Enabled only when there are results to view.